

Mobile Farmers Market

nativefoodnetwork.com

Our mission is helping expand Tribal producers' market access while increasing availability of traditional, healthy, and fresh foods in native communities.

Native American Foods 2015 Holiday Gift Box Order Form

Each gift box costs $25 and comes with a 1/2 pound of the hand-harvested wild rice from the most pristine northwoods waterways, your choice of wild berry jam/jelly (chokecherry, plum, blueberry, grape, or hawthorne), and your choice of either maple syrup or wild berry syrup (same variety choices as the jams/jellies).

Order Information:

Name: _____ Email: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: ____ Zip: _____ Phone: _____

Syrup Preference: _____ Jam/Jelly Preference: _____

Other Special Requests: _____

Number of Gift Boxes: _____ Payment type: _____

Payment may be enclosed with the form or made with a credit card online at nativefoodnetwork.com.

Forms may be mailed 7 N. Pinckney St, Suite 235, Madison, WI, 53703. Orders may also be made online.

Gift boxes will be mailed or available for pick-up during the week of December 14th, or earlier upon request

This opportunity is made possible by the Mobile Farmers Market, an innovative effort to address food desert and market access issues in Native communities.

Products are also available by request, so contact us if you would like to add something special to your gift list or holiday meal.

Mobile Farmers Market Contacts:

Kristin Klingman, Distribution Manager • kklingman@IndianAgLink.com • (920)889-3651

Dan Cornelius, IAC Regional Technical Assistance Specialist • dan@IndianAgLink.com • (608)280-1267